Since he has already been in boot camp, we can just reinstate him. We will need to do a transfer back to IIP, not Dixon Springs. Just put the reinstatement language in the comment section. INS screwed up on this one and put a detainer on him when they should not have as I understand it. I will copy Bruce on this outlook so he will know to deny the work release application.

OMG... this is quite a time consuming fella!

After speaking with offender for over an hour and speaking with his attorney, twice this morning.... "they" have decided to return to IIP. The attorney is worried that the approved work release will mess this up. Any chance you could deny the work release due to 26? What do you need me to do to get this inmate submitted for IIP transfer?

I just talked to his attorney. INS no longer wants this guy. Apparently they never should have issued the detainer in the first place from what I am told. I see he has now been put in for work release. Would you please have someone talk with him and see which he would prefer. If we were to reinstate him in to boot camp, we can get him out in 2 months. We can move him back over to Vienna if that is what he wants to do. Just let me know. I am going to be gone until next Thursday. I am having knee surgery Monday morning. Thank you

Bob,

Please work with Karen on this. If he is to go to IIP, then he should be reviewed and he will have to sign a refusal if he does not wish to go now.

Jaimet, Karen Wednesday, December 28, 2011 1:21 PM To: Funk, Sandra Subject: Mayorov M18346

I/M was terminated from IIP and sent to us due to an immigration warrant. The warrant has since been cleared. I/M has filed a grievance and stated that he is filing a law suit against the state because we removed him from IIP. Anyway, he claims he wants to remain in prison until his parole date because he intends to get a half million from the lawsuit... but the grievance he filed, I believe stated that he should be placed back in IIP. Should he be resubmitted for IIP now that the warrant is cleared or is that opportunity over? I just need an answer for the grievance and advised on whether we are supposed to transfer him....
